SENIOR TEACHERS: Jodi Snijders Edward Kooij

To be able to share Vipassana meditation practice with others is a true gift and honour. On their rural forested property on Hornby Island (British Columbia, Canada), they offer a place for people to come and find out the benefits of this practice for themselves. For the last 2 years in the month of August, they have taught a basic course for new meditators and a 10 day retreat for experienced meditators, and, since the completion of the first "kuti", they can also provide a suitable space for meditation year round. Amenities are simple: camping style for the August retreat with outdoor hot showers, outhouses and tents, and wood heating for the kuti with water....and yes, there is electricity! Meals are vegetarian.

Edward and Jodi have been involved personally with this practice since the early nineties and would like to express their gratitude to all those who have taught and supported them on this path. In keeping with the tradition of generosity, they are happy to have created a suitable environment for people to come and discover Vipassana meditation, based on the four foundations of mindfulness, and, to further develop their practice to deepen their own understanding the Buddha's Four Noble Truths and in so doing, bring ease, harmony and peace for themselves and others in their lives.

Sandra, Alex and Miriam Young started the Buddhavipassana Meditation Centre in January of 2015. After Miriam's grandmother passed away, the Young family purchased the house from her estate on the recommendation of Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo) for the purposes of starting a meditation centre.

The second floor of the house is currently used exclusively for meditation retreats and can host up to five students at a time. Sandra, Alex and Miriam have taught at the centre since 2015 and have had hundreds of students during that time.

Miguel Pelusi, born in Mexico City in 1965, has dedicated the last 34 years of his life to the study of Buddhism and the practice of Vipassanā meditation, under the spiritual guidance of Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo), spiritual leader of Buddhism in Thailand.

In 1987 Miguel took his basic course under the guidance of Khun Thanat and Khun Kate Chindaporn in Mexico City. In 1989 he started his training in Vipassanā under the guidance of Venerable Luang Poh Banyat Akkayano (Deputy Abbot of Wat Rampoeng) with the supervision of Ajarn Thanat and Ajarn Kathryn Chindaporn.

In 1993 he began his studies of Abhidhamma (psycho-ethical philosophy of Buddhism) under the guidance of Venerable Aha Maha Pandit U Silananda, a renowned Burmese Dhamma teacher, who was Venerable Mahasi Sayadaw's Assistant, as well as SUTTA studies.

In 1999 he received at Wat Phradhatu Sri Chom Tong the title of Lay Instructor, issued by the Ecclesiastical Director of the Northern Region of Thailand.

In 2005 he ordained as a Bhikkhu, having Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo) as his preceptor.

In 2012 Anumodana Meditation Center was formally inaugurated having Ajarn Thanat as the Teacher.

In 2013 he received recognition from the Chiang Mai governor for his support in spreading Thai Buddhism abroad.

In 2014 he received recognition from the King of Thailand for his support in spreading Thai Buddhism abroad.

In 2018 he received recognition from Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo) for his work in teaching Vipassana in Spanish speaking countries during the last 22 years.

Currently Miguel supports in the expansion of the Dhamma in Mexico, Spain, and Colombia as guest Teacher, and is the advisor for the Mexican center in Monterrey Nuevo Leon in Mexico.

In 2005 the Maldonado family provided a space inside a hotel where they were able to give meditation classes every Monday. From 2005 to 2009, Ajarn Thanat Chindaporn visited Monterrey once a year to lead a meditation retreat. The Vipassana retreats continued until 2010, the year Pepe received his Certificate to Teach Vipassana. In 2011 he received an award from the Chiangmai Provincial government in recognition for his services to Buddhism. In 2012 they opened the "Bodhi Tree" meditation center, sponsored by the Maldonado family, and they received a Buddha image donated by Mrs. Pensiri from Thailand. In 2016, Senior Teacher Sandra Cibrian became a permanent teacher at the center. In 2017 Pepe received the 'Benefactor of Buddhism Award' (Dhamma Chak), from HRH Princess Maha Chakra Sirindhorn in Bangkok. In 2018 they started to teach children regularly and offer classes in local schools. Currently, they continue teaching through online classes.

SENIOR TEACHER Eduardo Torres Astigueta

Eduardo Torres Astigueta is the founder and Director of Vipassana Buenos Aires and the Santidhamma Vipassana Meditation Center for Argentina.

He did his first basic course Vipassana Meditation Retreat in April 1993, at Wat Ram Poeng. His teachers were the Venerable Luang Poh Banyat Akkayano, Ajarn Thanat Chindaporn and Ajarn Kathryn Chindaporn. From July 1994 to March 1995 he accompanied his teachers, assisting them in the instruction of beginners, at different retreats in México, Puerto Rico and in Wat Ram Poeng. In May 1995 he returned to Argentina, where he started teaching the Dhamma and Vipassana Meditation based on The Four Foundations of Mindfulness. In 2013 he received the Certification to teach Vipassana Meditation, authorized by Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo) after 20 years of practice and study of Buddhism. Since then, his activities multiplied: Dhamma Talks and teaching Vipassana Meditation in High Schools and Universities; 4 week courses for beginners; 2 or 3 retreats every year (5 and 10 days) and regular group practices three times a week.

2017 saw the inauguration of their own Meditation Center and everything continued to grow. In December 2018, Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo), honored them by naming the Center, "Santidhamma Vipassana Meditation Center of Argentina" and the center received a statue of Buddha (Vajra Diamond Buddha).

FOUNDER:

Sophie Artur Olivier Balais

Sophie Artur and Olivier Balais have both practiced this method of Vipassana for several years. They first met Ajarn Thanat and Ajarn Kathryn during their teaching tour in Paris 2013. In 2018 they held their first full Vipassana course at their home in Correz, France. 2020 will be the 3rd consecutive year that they have successfully hosted a Vipassana course. They are delighted to welcome others who wish to practice insight meditation and take great care to prepare home cooked meals and create a suitable and comfortable surround for their guests to retreat.

GUESTS TEACHERS:

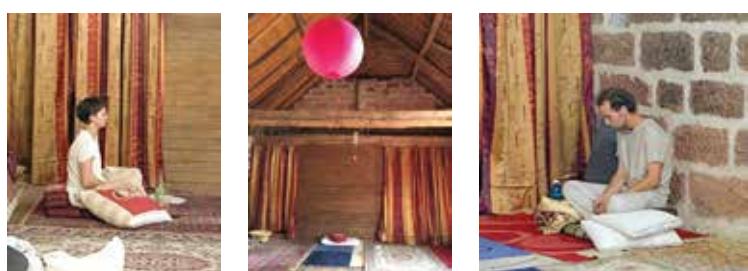

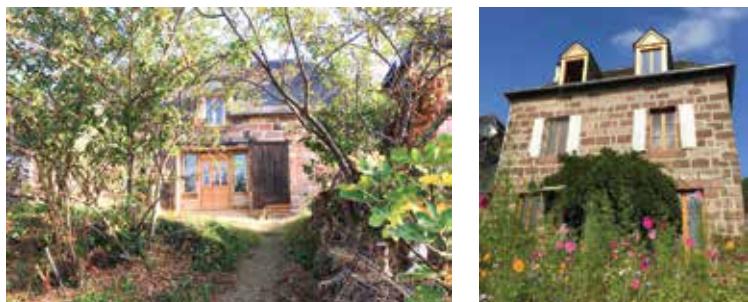

Mohamed Ahmad Hannah Ahmad

Mohamed Ahmad has been practicing Vipassana since 2010. Of Lebanese descent, Mohamed was born and spent his childhood in Africa and later in Belgium. Mohamed speaks English, French and Arabic. Hannah Ahmad is from the UK and has been practicing Vipassana since 2012.

Since discovering this method, they have spent most of their time living and working at the Northern Vipassana Meditation Centre's International Department a Wat Phrathat Sri Chomtong in Thailand. After extensive practice and the necessary training, under the guidance of senior disciples and head teachers Ajarn Thanat and Ajarn Kathryn Chindaporn, Mohamed and Hannah have been authorized to teach Vipassana. Accepting their Teaching certificates and blessing from The Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo) in March 2013 and October 2014.

By May 2016, both Mohamed and Hannah had received an award from the Government of Chiangmai in recognition for their services to Buddhism.

In May 2019 Mohamed and Hannah were awarded by The Most Venerable Phra Prom Mongkol Vi (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo) in recognition for their services to the dissemination of Vipassana Meditation. Together they have conducted Vipassana courses in France and Egypt and gave an introduction to Vipassana in Beirut, Lebanon. Currently living in Thailand with their young son Gabriel, they assist Ajarn Thanat and Ajarn Kathryn Chindaporn at the International Meditation Centre in Chomtong.

Most Venerable Phra Prom Mongkol Vi

ABBOT: Venerable Phrakhrubhavanabuddhivides

Already in the 1980s, the Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo) had travelled twice to Germany and suggested the founding of a Thai Buddhist monastery there. In 1993 the supporting association of the future Wat Buddhapiyawaram was founded. In 1997 the association was able to acquire a suitable plot of land and since then Wat Buddhapiyawaram has been located in Dreieich-Götzenhain near Frankfurt. In 1998 the Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo) came and consecrated the temple. He was accompanied by Ven. Phrakhrubhavanabuddhivides, who has been leading the temple since then with much skill and experience. Usually two to three Thai monks live in the temple and at times Western monks also, who give teachings in German and English.

The Wat Buddhapiyawaram is a social and cultural meeting place for many Thai and German Buddhists and people interested in meditation, as well as a place where Vipassana meditation can be learned and practiced. There is a big Thai community who support the temple as well as a remarkable Western community of Vipassana meditators. Besides traditional Buddhist ceremonies and rituals, Vipassana courses are regularly organized.

The temple maintains close contacts with the Venerable Phrakhrubhavanabidhan (Ven. Phra Ajarn Ofer Thiracitto) in Israel, as well as the Dhammacari Vipassana Meditation Center and the Dhammanikhom Vipassana Meditation Center in Germany.

At Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi's (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo) suggestion and with his blessings, the Buddhist teaching and Vipassana meditation (insight or mindfulness meditation) is taught and promoted at Dhammanikhom Vipassana Meditation Center.

The center has been named by Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo). Dhammanikhom describes a community of persons, who come together to live and practice the Dhamma. It can be translated as a Dhamma community.

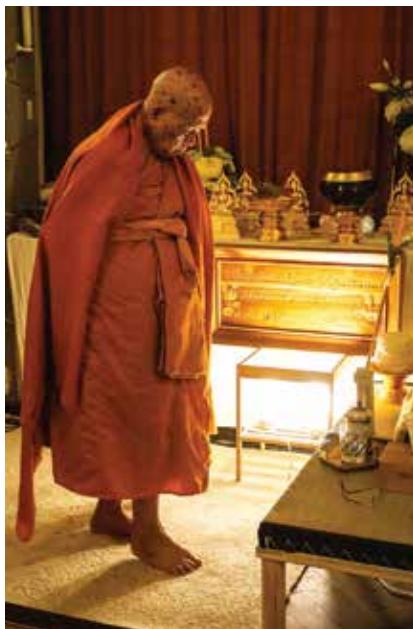

The meditation center with monastic routine is a place of refuge for those who wish to learn, practice and deepen their knowledge of the Buddhist teaching. The center offers monthly intensive Vipassana courses of varying length (7, 12, 15, 21 days). Besides this the monastic routine with daily morning and evening chanting and ceremonies for the major Buddhist holidays takes place.

The activities to establish the center started in the summer of 2015. By the end of 2017, the Dhammanikhom non-profit association was able to purchase a suitable property and started to offer regular courses. Late 2018 saw the Most Venerable Phra Prom Mongkol Vi with an entourage of monks visit the center and perform the blessing ceremony.

In 2010 she began inviting Ven. Phra Ajarn Ofer and Ven. Bhikkhuni Sila (Maechee Manu, Samaneri Sila) for Dhamma talks and meditation evenings in her area southwest of Frankfurt. Since 2012, she organised them alone, with weekly meditation-evenings and weekend-meditation-courses in about 6 different villages and towns. In the beginning of 2020, Andrea had transformed her home into a small meditation center, so it can grow in the future.

In February 2020 she organised the first Vipassana-retreat near Frankfurt.

In 2015 she received an Award for Buddhist benefactors at the regional level of Chiang Mai Province in Thailand.

In 2018, she received her Certification to Teach Vipassana Meditation, authorized by the Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo) and received an Award for her support in the development of the Meditation Center in Chomtong.

The Siri Dhammacari Vipassana Centre in Vienna, Austria was initiated by Senior teacher Hildegard Huber and established in March 2012.

Regular opening times are every Monday and Wednesday evening and one Sunday per month. For more intensive practice and for the completion of home retreats additional opening times are arranged. At least once a year a recognised meditation teacher is invited to give lectures and a meditation weekend is organised.

Elisabeth Dietl (Lisi) provides the premises and she facilitates the meditation centre together with her companion Manfred and the Sangha - Friends. Lisi has been organizing regular meditation evenings, meditation courses and she has invited Vipassana teachers to Vienna since 2012. She gives introduction and first instructions into Vipassana Meditation based on the four foundations of mindfulness for beginners.

The Vienna Sangha is very thankful for all the years of teaching and tireless support of The Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi (Most Ven. Alejandro Chavez

Alejandro Chavez is from Mexico and teaches meditation in Spanish and English. Alejandro has been practicing Vipassana based on the Four Foundations of Mindfulness since 2005. A disciple of Most Ven. Phra Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo, Alejandro began his teacher training with Ajarn Thanat and Ajarn Kathryn Chindaporn at the International Department at Wat Chomtong in Chiangmai in 2014. Alejandro received his teaching certificate and authorization to teach Vipassana from the late Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo) in 2016. That same year, Alejandro received the Benefactor of Buddhism Award from the Government of Chiangmai Province for his services to the Dhamma. On October 2020 he received a statue of Buddha "Luang Poh Pejr" (Vajra Diamond Buddha) from his Senior Teacher Khun Thanat Chindaporn, along with the authorization and the encouragement to open a meditation center in the state of Chiapas, Mexico. His plan at present is to create a center on a piece of land donated by his parents Pablo Chávez and Elva Guillen. A center dedicated to the practice and teaching of Vipassana meditation based on the Four Foundations of Mindfulness, maintaining the essence of the practice as taught by Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo).

Jasmin "discovered" Vipassana meditation for herself while travelling in Thailand as a digital nomad in 2015. After having experienced the benefits of the practise, she started to stay in the International Vipassana Meditation Centre at the temple Wat Phradhatu Sri Chomtong Voravihara in Northern Thailand for extended periods of time every year. In 2018 she received her Certification to teach Vipassana, authorized by The Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo). In 2020, Jasmin received recognition as a benefactor and was awarded by the government of Chiang Mai for her services to Buddhism.

Together with her partner Danilo, who meanwhile also visited the temple of Chomthong and stepped into the practise, she is now happy to welcome old and new meditators in their home and share this precious technique with others on their way to a truer inner happiness.

The aim of Vipassana.sk is to facilitate access to Vipassana meditation for interested people in Slovakia and central/eastern Europe by: inviting teachers & organizing accessible courses (including translators), fund-raising, networking meditators and supporters, and later founding a dedicated, permanent meditation center in Slovakia.

Katarína Bírešová was born in Slovakia and has lived most of her adult life in the UK, with her professional background being neuroscience care. She started practising Vipassana in 2012 and was trained as a teacher by Ajarn Thanat Chindaporn in Chomtong. She started the vipassana.sk project in 2016 and invited Ajarn Thanat and Ajarn Kathryn Chindaporn to Slovakia for the first course. She was officially recognized for her activities in Thailand and Slovakia by the Chiang Mai provincial government.

Václav Šmilauer was born in Prague (Czech Republic) and works as freelancer in the domain of numerical physics. He first met Vipassana in 2011, and started the Tisarana center in Prague in 2014. In 2016, he received recognition from the Chiang Mai provincial government for helping Ajarn Thanat Chindaporn by establishing the center in Prague. He completed his teacher's training under Ajarn Thanat in 2017.

Miriam Young & Alex Young

Miriam's grandmother, Alice Lewkowicz was the daughter of a Jewish couple who lived in Lieberose in east Germany about 120 km South East of Berlin. Until Alice was 12 years old they lived in a large house at 8 Market Street. Because of the holocaust, Alice's parents packed her a suit case with photographs and family mementos knowing that they would never see her again and sent her to Israel alone. They did not survive the war and we have never discovered what exactly happened to them.

After arriving in Israel, Alice eventually married and she and her husband decided to move to Canada. Decades later in the late 1980s, the Berlin wall came down and an English lawyer started helping Jews whose families had property in the region, to reclaim it back from the German government. He placed an ad in a Canadian newspaper. Alice contacted the lawyer to see if she could get her house back. Amazingly, she did and the house at 8 Market Street was returned to her.

Unfortunately, the house was in a very bad condition and Alice didn't have the money to fix it up. She chose not to sell the house even though most of the other Jews who got their property back chose to sell. Miriam and Alex then decided to go and ask Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo) what to do with the house and he said to them, "Keep that house as a meditation centre".

When Alice died in 2014, Miriam and Alex told Miriam's family that they would take the house and try to follow Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo) advice. In 2018, Alex and Miriam finally completed all the German inheritance paper work and the house was transferred to them. A few weeks later, they were surprised to get a call from Ajarn Thanat saying that Most Venerable Phra Prommongkol Vi (Most Ven. Ajarn Tong Sirimangalo) was going to Germany and wanted to visit the house in Lieberose. He went with several monks and did a blessing ceremony at the house. At this time, Alex and Miriam are planning to hold a retreat at the house, however minor renovations must first be done in order to use the space.

"Ajarn Thanat Chindaporn's teaching and guidance have been life-changing for me.

It has enabled me to share the practice with hundreds of students over the last 15 years, holding retreats in the UK, Thailand, France, Italy, Austria, and Greece. His warm, caring and father like character has been a support for the thousands who have come into contact with him over the years. May the effects of his great work in the dhamma continue to support many generations to come.

Many blessings to him and may he continue his great work in the Dhamma."
